

Evangelical Baptist Camp: Camper Policies and Procedures 2010

1.1 Campers:

The following sub-sections outlines the various policies and procedures that campers are expected to understand and review with their parent(s) and/or guardian(s) prior to their attendance at summer camp.

1.1.1 Role of Authority/Disciplinary Action

The following outlines general behavioural expectations for each camper and disciplinary action that will be taken if any serious behavioural problems are encountered:

- a) to recognize, respect and obey those given a position of authority (ie. workers, counselors, kitchen staff, nurse, Director, Program Director etc.)
- b) to understand that the Camp is responsible for each camper while away from their parents/guardians
- c) to review the entire "Campers" section carefully and to follow these guidelines to the best of their ability while at camp
- d) to understand that a "Camper Evaluation" will be completed by the assigned counselor and can determine whether a camper may or may not be accepted in future camping seasons
- e) to understand that a counselor may have to take away camper privileges in order to correct defiant, disruptive or disobedient behaviour (ie. loss of swimming or canteen, extension of their rest period, timeouts etc.)
- f) to understand that if any significant damage is made to camp property, equipment or any other articles of value by a camper, that the Camp will seek replacement in a reasonable monetary amount as stated by the Camp Director or Assistant Camp Director
- g) to understand the following disciplinary steps for the camper who displays serious defiant, disruptive and/or disobedient behaviour:

Step 1

The counselor may ask a Program Director for assistance in dealing with defiant, disruptive and disobedient behaviour.

Step 2

When the behaviour of a camper does not improve after discussions with the Program Director, the Program Director will ask for assistance and direction from either the Assistant Camp Director or the Camp Director.

Step 3

When a camper's behaviour has still not shown any significant improvement, a phone call will be made to the parent/guardian by the Director after a confidential group discussion amongst Senior Staff

Step 4

If a camper continues to display disruptive, defiant and/or disobedient behaviour, the Director, after confidential discussions with Senior Staff Members, will contact the parent/guardian in order to have them pick up their child from the camp.

1.1.2 Language Use

The following explains language expectations of the camper:

- a) to refrain from the use of foul and/or dirty language and/or jokes
- b) to refrain from taking the Lord's name in vain (ie. "Oh my God!")

1.1.3 Dress

The following outlines what campers are to follow in terms of our "dress code":

- a) campers may wear "everyday" clothes during the daily activities
- b) campers are encouraged to wear clean and suitable clothes for our evening Chapel services
- c) girls are required to wear one-piece bathing suits at the waterfront
- d) no mini-skirts please
- e) girls - no tight tops or ones that don't cover your belly-button please!
- f) please note that we do not have laundry facilities for campers unless arranged with nurse because of illness
- g) clothing displaying "rude" slogans or promoting the use of drugs or alcohol is not acceptable

1.1.4 Mealtimes

The following explains what is expected of campers during mealtimes:

- a) campers are expected to line up quietly and on time with their cabins without pushing, shoving, fighting etc. in cabin order - primaries first, juniors next, etc...
- b) campers are expected to walk into dining hall and sit down quietly with their cabin at table assigned
- c) campers will not stand up and reach over or yell for someone to pass them something
- d) please take some food and pass to the next person - you can always have seconds!
- e) please use utensils provided for serving food
- f) campers are expected to keep volume in the dining room at reasonable levels as directed by their counselor or Senior Staff
- g) campers may be excused from a meal and sent to their bunk if behaviour warrants (ie. disrupting others/disobeying counselors etc.)
- h) "silent meals" may be used to teach campers self-control and discipline (and give the Staff a break from the noise!)
- i) campers are expected to wear clothes and shoes, and to come with clean face and hands

1.1.5 Rise 'n' Shine/Lights Out

The following outlines what is expected of campers regarding waking and bedtime hours:

- a) to wake up at designated times so they may wash up and get dressed in order to be ready for morning devotions
- b) should a camper wake up before their designated time, they are required to stay in bed quietly so others can get their much needed rest (unless an emergency washroom break is needed!)
- c) to be ready for bed and in bunks at designated bedtimes
- d) when it's time for "lights out", this means that campers are to stop talking, go to sleep and remain in their cabin during the course of the night
